Randy's Remarks...

We will celebrate Father's Day June 20. For some, this day does not engender fond memories of a loving father. For others, like myself, this special day sparks many marvelous recollections of times spent with my dad.

Like the time I hid in the car in order to skip Sunday School and Church and one of the deacons saw me and told my dad that I must be sick because I was laying down in the backseat of the car. Well, when my dad came to check on me, I was sick. But it was a beautiful sight to see father and son walking hand in hand into church! I thank God for a father who loved the Father and shared that love with me.

I recall Dad having to work two and sometimes three jobs just to keep food on the table and a roof over our heads. He was often exhausted and sometimes a little grouchy, but I always knew he loved me. Watching him work hard during the early years of my life, then later as a chemist in a research and development lab and finally as co-owner of several Jones IGA Foodliners, I learned the value of hard work and a strong work ethic.

From my dad I have learned to love family, my church, missions, my work and to love, respect and enjoy life! He has also taught me how to be a little "grouchy" as need be.

My mother and dad have been a team for 68 years now. They reside at the Forum at Brookside. So, on this Father's Day, I want to say thank you Dad for being a loving and positive influence on my life. Thanks for your love, for your correction, your generosity, your encouragement, your faith in me and for your ongoing prayers on my behalf! I love you, Dad!!
