Randy's Remarks...

The month of June will launch us into summer. It is also a time set aside to express appreciation to our fathers for the positive influences they have exerted on our lives. June 19 is the "official" time to observe Father's Day.

Last month I wrote an article honoring my mother for Mother's Day. This month I want to write a few words to express my love and appreciation for my father, Joseph Jones, as we celebrate Father's Day.

Dad modeled a strong work ethic for me. He was a great provider of the necessities of life. He was an outstanding role model for my sister and me in the area of spiritual development and growth. Our church attendance was a given, not an option.

I recall Dad serving in the church as a Sunday School teacher, deacon, singing in the choir and serving on just about every committee at one time or another.

He was very affirming and supportive of my call into ministry. He has made sure to visit with me everywhere I have served as a pastor, an international missionary, a director of missions and as a Kentucky Baptist Convention staff member. He and my mother, both in wheelchairs, attended my retirement lunch from the KBC, still supportive and affirming.

The Bible is quite clear that we are to honor our mothers and fathers. As we honor our fathers this month, let it be an act of love and worship that will also honor our Heavenly Father.

If your father was not a loving dad and failed to be a positive role model for you, forgive him and continue to work on becoming the kind of mother or father that God has called you to be to your children.

It is my prayer that I have been the kind of father my two children, Kevin and Rhonda, and my two stepsons, Todd and V.P. can look up to, call on for help, love, and know that they are loved and supported by my prayers on their behalf.

Life is short. Express your love now to the living. You don't have to be "mushy," but let your father and Father know you love them through your words and deeds!
