Kentuckiana Marriage Tune-Up II Conference

Few of us knew what we were promising when we made our vows at the altar. (Some of us still aren't sure!) The traditional vows seem to add a touch of romance and validity to the ceremony, but what do they look like lived out in day-to-day marriage?

Using their unique style of dynamic delivery, Jeff and Debby McElroy share the tools that help a marriage ride out of the altar and into the sunset.

This timely and critical conference will be held March 2-3, 2012 at Crestwood Baptist Church.

For more information, call Bill Ellis at 502 241-8534 or register online at: www.crestwoodbaptist.org

Don't miss this opportunity to "Tune-Up" your marriage!

Plan to attend and be pampered!

Randy's Remarks...

Find It Here began in 2010 with prayer walking our communities and distributing Find It Here Bags to homes. In 2011, we continued with more prayer walking, specific praying and distribution of The Gospel According to John and Romans. This year the emphasis will be on using attractional events to reach the people of our communities.

These attractional events can be contextualized to our communities and be designed to reach people who are not attending our churches. These events can be, but are not limited to, block parties, wild game dinners, oil change days, classic car shows, concerts, sporting events, etc. They are to become bridges to the community.

Find It Here 2012 is composed of three parts:

1. An eight-week media saturation campaign March and April
2. Participating churches plan an event for March or April
3. Prayer walking and distributing invitations to the event one to two week prior, and then do follow-up afterwards

The North American Mission Board has materials to assist churches.

Links to these resources can be found at: www.kybaptist.oorg/finithere.

Hopefully, we will be able to enhance our community outreach by utilizing some or all of these events.

Randy Jones, Director of Missions
